
Decision Taken by the Director on 28 April 2020

In view of the changed situation (current circumstances), I have decided to adopt the following measure:

1. With effect from 30 April 2020, the amount of the monthly rent may be reduced by 20% until further notice, and that for those accommodated students who do not use the accommodation in the TBU Halls of Residence/in the MSI accommodation facility during the period when classes are suspended.

Provided that all requirements listed below have been met:

- The student was accommodated in the TBU Halls of Residence or in the MSI accommodation facility as of 30 April 2020 in compliance with a valid Accommodation Contract.
 - The student has not terminated his/her Accommodation Contract before 30 June 2020.
 - The charge for accommodation must be duly paid in compliance with the Accommodation Contract.
 - The student who was allowed a discount on the charge for accommodation in April will automatically continue to receive the discount until further notice.
 - A student who has not yet been given a discount on the charge for accommodation shall send a request for the discount on the charge for accommodation in electronic form to the Accommodation Officer in the relevant University Residence Hall no later than the 10th day of the respective month.
 - Discounts cannot be applied for retrospectively.
 - The student is not allowed to use the accommodation in the TBU Halls of Residence/in the MSI accommodation facility during the period for which the charge for accommodation is reduced. If the student uses the accommodation, he/she is obliged to report this fact to the Accommodation Officer in the relevant Residence Hall, and the monthly rent shall be charged at full price in accordance with the Accommodation Contract.
 - In the event that the rules for the discount on the charge for accommodation to be provided have been infringed or in the event that the Accommodation Contract has been terminated by the HRR, the monthly rent shall be charged at the full price for the duration of the Accommodation Contract, and the accommodation deposit shall not be refunded.
2. Standard conditions in accordance with the Accommodation Contract shall apply to all the other students.
 3. Decision Taken by the Director of the HRR on 24 March 2020 and Decision Taken by the Director of the HRR on 31 March 2020 = Discount on the Charge for Accommodation have been cancelled with immediate effect.
 4. Decision Taken by the Director of the HRR on 21 April 2020 = Closure of the U7 Building shall continue to be effective.
